

Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 6, 2016

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come.
— 2 Corinthians 5:17

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the first steps to a Catholic wedding takes place in the parish rectory, as the newly engaged come forward to "set a date." We owe this scenario to reforms made by the emperor Charlemagne late in the eighth century. He required that nobles and commoners alike have public weddings, and also required that marrying couples be examined for factors that would block a marriage, such as previous marriages or close kinship. The pope was more conservative, however, and resisted the emperor's creativity. It was enough for the pope that the couples exchange consent. That tradition is passed on to this day, to some couples' surprise. In 866, Pope Nicholas ruled that a marriage was legal and binding even without a liturgy or public celebration. After that, it was the consent of the couple, not the blessing of parents or priest, that made a marriage "count." If consent was lacking, such as through abduction or fear, then the marriage could not "take." Charlemagne got a great deal done, but he was a political flash in the pan, and the empire had virtually collapsed by the year 1000. Europe broke into a checkerboard of princedoms and languages, and at last all marriages came under the church, the glue holding the known world together.

CLOSER THAN YOU THINK

Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Cuaresma es tiempo de reconciliacion por medio del perdon. En este espiritu, el Papa san Juan Pablo II pidio perdon por pecados cometidos por la Iglesia. Uno de estos pecados es la manera como America fue cristianizada. La relacion del latino con la religion catolica ha sido entre buenas intenciones y antagonismos. Gracias a Dios, somos cristianos! Lamentablemente, nuestro bautizo, en la mayor parte de los casos, fue en agua bendita y sangre indigena a la vez, ya que America fue evangelizada con cruz y espada. Los pobres misioneros que con fatiga, predicaron en nuestras tierras venian acompafiados por hombres poderosos en busca de riquezas. El filosofo romano-español Seneca (siglo I) afirmaba: "la religion es algo que para la persona común es verdad, para el sabio es falso y para el poderoso es util". A su vez, el romano-judio Pablo de Tarso declara que en Cristo, Dios ha revelado que la persona comun y necia derribara la falsedad de los sabios (1 Cor 1:18-31). El latino creyente reconoce que su fe nacio del dolor de la conquista y no niega los abusos clericales, pero confia en el Evangelio reconciliador.

MAS CERCA DE LO QUE PIENSAS

Muchas de las personas fracasadas en la vida son personas que no se dieron cuenta de lo cerca que estaban del triunfo y se dieron por vencidos.

CHARACTER

A simple judge of my character is how I treat a person who can do absolutely nothing for me.

CHARACTER

Una simple manera de juzgar mi caracter es ver como trato a una persona que no puede hacer absolutamente nada por mi.
