

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
May 29, 2016

[A]s often as you eat this bread
and drink the cup,
you proclaim the death of the Lord
until he comes.
— 1 Corinthians 11:26

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Perú tiene mas de 3000 fiestas cada año, normalmente en torno al santo patron de algun pueblo. La celebración de Corpus Christi es celebrada en todo el país. Pero es mas llamativa en Cusco. Durante el día se escucha el repique de Maria Angola, la campana más grande de todo Perú, que existe desde el siglo XVI. La celebración incluye una procesión con quince santos y vírgenes del siglo XVII, que vienen desde sus santuarios hasta la barroca Catedral de Cusco para honrar el Cuerpo de Jesus. Estas imagenes son cargadas por la plaza de armas antes de llegar a la catedral donde se quedaran hasta el octavo día. Según los peruanos los santos y vírgenes pasan las siete noches platicando con el Señor de los temblores, bromeando y planificando el año que viene para sus parroquias. El ultimo día los santos y vírgenes regresan a sus santuarios con otra procesión. Estas dos procesiones nos recuerdan que por mucho que los latinoamericanos amemos y veneremos a los santos y vírgenes reconocemos que tanto ellos como nosotros estan al servicio de Cristo Jesus.

FAITH IS

Faith is not merely praying
Upon our knees at night;
Faith is not merely straying Through darkness into light ... Faith is the brave endeavor,
The splendid enterprise,
The strength to serve, whatever Conditions may arise.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Once the early Christians realized that Christ's coming in glory was delayed, there was a need to provide for the governance and everyday needs of the church. The various "orders" within the church carried forward the apostles' ministry, but also allowed for a measure of creativity. The sacrament we call "holy orders" evolved somewhat slowly. At first, it made sense for Christians to use the forms they knew, adapting them to new situations. Synagogues, for example, were administered by a board of "elders," translated into Greek as presbyteros. We know from the Acts of the Apostles that a system of presbyters was a normal feature of church life from earliest days. They stood in relationship to another order, that of "overseers," translated into Greek as episkopos, giving us the English "bishops." The bishop was the shepherd, the faithful tender of the flock, one who offered the Eucharist, forgave sins, and maintained the bond of charity. Just at the deacons were the chief advisers for the charitable life of the church, so were the presbyters meant to advise the bishop on the spiritual life of the faithful. They were trusted advisers at first, not pastors or priests as we understand those terms today.

LA FEES

La fe no es meramente rezar de rodillas cada noche;
Lafe no es solo pasar de la oscuridad hacia la luz... La fe es un empeño valiente, empresa
esplendida,
la fuerza para servir, cualquiera sean las condiciones.
